

I support removing the morse code requirement from the general class ham radio licence.